

Q&A FOR FRANKFURT SCHOOL E-LEARNING PROGRAMME

1. What E-Learning Courses we are offering in this scholarship programme?

We are offering SME Finance, Risk Management, Digital Finance and Agriculture Finance courses.

2. Who can apply for Frankfurt School scholarship E-Learning programme?

Anyone working at/for:

- Banks, MFIs and other financial institutions
- Regulators and government authorities
- Donor Institutions
- NGOS
- International Organizations

3. How long will it take to complete each course?

Our online certification programmes are 6-month part-time trainings, designed to be conducted along full-time work or other obligations. Apart from a few deadlines, the courses follow a very flexible approach, allowing participants to follow their own study schedule.

4. How do we offer our training materials?

Frankfurt School offer quality training materials in the following ways:

- Video lectures
  - Intro-videos
  - Web-based presentations
- Online Tests
- Scripts
- Assignments and Discussion Forum

Organised by

5. Do I need to take a final exam in order to get a certificate from Frankfurt School?

Yes. Passing a final examination is a requirement for obtaining your certificate. The final exam takes 2 hours, is paper based and can be taken at any of our partner institutions.

6. Where and when will classroom training sessions will be held?

Classroom training sessions will be held in August/September at Yangon University of Economics (YUE), Kamayut Township, Inya Road, Yangon.

7. How can I apply for Frankfurt School E-Learning Scholarships?

- Step1: Submit online application form before 15 March 2020.
- Step2: Online registration to Frankfurt School platform.

8. Would you like to know more about Certified Expert in SME Finance?

About Certified Expert in SME Finance

This online course, which is based on Frankfurt School's broad experience in practical project work and theoretical business school education programs, is tailored to the needs of mid-level managers and loan officers active or interested in SME Finance.

What we offer?

- Seven units including video lectures, a PDF script laying the theoretical foundation, examples, practical exercises, online tests and case studies.
- A discussion forum for course related issues as well as for exchange of opinions and experiences with peers, tutors and the FSDF e-Campus team.
- Personalized support from your e-Campus.
- The option to obtain a Frankfurt School Certificate after passing the final exam or a confirmation of course completion after completing the course.
- Classroom training sessions from Frankfurt School international expert.

Organised by

Deposit & Fees

- Scholarship holders will have to pay Deposit of 300,000 MMK.
(Full deposit will be refunded upon successful completion of the whole SME Finance course incl. final exam)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay classroom training fees of 120,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay final exam fees of 120,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)

9. I would like to know more about Certified Expert in Risk Management?

About Certified Expert in Risk Management

The objective of this course is to deepen your understanding of modern risk analysis including credit, market, liquidity and operational risk and to implement this understanding in your institution. The course teaches global concepts applied to the special conditions of developing and emerging markets.

What we offer?

- An interactive e-learning course including video lectures, a PDF script for each unit, practical exercises and examples, ready to use excel tools, online tests and case studies.
- A discussion forum for course related issues as well as for exchange of opinions and experiences with your classmates, tutors and the FSDF e-Campus Team.
- Personalized support from your e-Campus team.
- The option to obtain a Frankfurt School certificate after passing the final exam or a confirmation of course completion after completing the course.
- Classroom training sessions from Frankfurt School international expert.

Organised by

 Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH

Deposit & Fees

- Scholarship holders will have to pay Deposit of 300,000 MMK.
(1 Full deposit will be refunded upon successful completion of the whole SME Finance course incl. final exam)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay classroom training fees of 120,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay final exam fees of 80,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)

10. Would you like to know more about Certified Expert in Digital Finance?

About Certified Expert in Digital Finance

In our new online course on Digital Finance you will learn about the emerging digital landscape as well as the new market participants and products that have disrupted the market. By taking the course, you will be enabled to successfully deploy digital technologies in your institution and leverage digital financial services (DFS) in your target markets.

What we offer?

- Seven units including video lectures, a PDF script laying the theoretical foundation, examples, practical exercises, online tests and case studies.
- A discussion forum for course related issues as well as for exchange of opinions and experiences with peers, tutors and the FSDF e-Campus team.
- Personalized support from your e-Campus.
- The option to obtain a Frankfurt School Certificate after passing the final exam or a confirmation of course completion after completing the course.
- Classroom training sessions from Frankfurt School international expert.

Organised by

Deposit & Fees

- Scholarship holders will have to pay Deposit of 300,000 MMK.
(Full deposit will be refunded upon successful completion of the whole Digital Finance course including final exam)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay final exam fees of 80,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)

11. Would you like to know more about Certified Expert in Digital Finance?

About Certified Expert in Agricultural Finance

The “Certified Expert in Agricultural Finance” (CEAF) is an on-line course that covers a wide range of agriculture finance topics. Participants will gain a broad perspective on the concept of agricultural finance and acquire the necessary skills to design feasible operations, products and delivery channels. One focus of the course will be on lending to farmers and agribusinesses, in particular how to manage risks and costs along the entire loan cycle.

This course is based on Frankfurt School’s extensive experience in practical project work and theoretical education programs, and it is tailored to the needs of our target audience.

What do we offer?

- An interactive e-learning course including video lectures, PDF scripts, examples, practical exercises, online tests and case studies.
- A discussion forum for course related issues as well as for exchange of opinions and experiences with, tutors, peers or the FSDF e-Campus team.
- Personalized support from your e-Campus team.
- The possibility to achieve a Frankfurt School certificate after passing the final exam or a confirmation of course completion after completing the course.
- Classroom training sessions from Frankfurt School international expert.

Organised by

Deposit & Fees

- Scholarship holders will have to pay Deposit of 300,000 MMK.
(Full deposit will be refunded upon successful completion of the whole Agriculture Finance course including final exam)
- Scholarship holders will have to pay final exam fees of 80,000 MMK.
(*Non-refundable)

