Announcement for Teaching Staff, Admin-staff and Students to contribute articles to our YUEco Annual Magazine (2019 – 2020 / 2021)

1. We are proud to announce that it is time for our university's 'YUEco Annual Magazine' to come out as usual during the next academic year. Therefore, after COVID 19 infectious disease, when the universities are reopened, we would like to start collecting the articles (pieces of writing) for English Section. This is a great chance for you to grab for the contributions of your articles in our 'YUEco Annual Magazine'. Do not miss it!!!
2. You can send any forms of items: 'articles, short stories, poems, ornate pieces of aesthetic writing, cartoons, etc.' written in English to the department of Myanmar (Ywathagyi) or to the department of English. (We will announce the last date when the schools are opened.)
3. The article(s) must be submitted with the writer's acknowledgement attached asserting ownership of his/her article(s) and confirming that the article(s) have never been sent for publication to any other public media.
4. Articles can be handwritten or word processed on a computer.
5. When submitting your article(s), it is essential to express not only your pan-name and original name but also your designation, department, address and phone number if you are a staff and your roll number, specialization, year, address and phone number if you are a student.
6. The contributors of the articles in our Annual Magazine will be awarded the honorarium fees and some presents like a magazine and others for reminiscence forever at the grand ceremony held at YUEco sometime later.
7. Again, you all are cordially invited to submit your articles for the publication of our YUEco Annual Magazine. During the COVID 19, stay at home, be safe and enjoy being prepared yourselves for your contributions to our annual magazine.
